

SCORES OF LIVES LOST IN CANADA

Forest Fires in Ontario
Still Unchecked
Today

HUNDREDS ARE MISSING

From Homes in Porcupine District and Property Loss Will Reach Millions.

Toronto, Ont., July 13.—With the death list already exceeding 300 and the property damage reaching far into the millions the fires in the Porcupine district of Ontario are still unchecked. Many of the richest mines in the district have been completely wiped out. The flames are rushing like lightning through the heavily timbered lands that stretch northward from Porcupine Lake.

THE KNOWN DEAD.

At Westdome 27 foreigners were entrapped and smothered to death in the mining company's shaft, and four mining officials, Americans, with their wives, are dead.

At United Porcupine mine a foreman and three workmen are dead.

At Philadelphia mine, a foreman and four others.

At Dome mine, 30 laborers cut off from escape and smothered to death.

Drowned in Porcupine Lake four men, all of Spokane, Wash.

Two hundred settlers with their wives and families missing with the certainty that many are dead.

The loss of life in Porcupine district is known to be several hundred and the property loss will reach several millions of dollars. Only three of the 84 employees of the West Dome mine have been accounted for and 200 miners, helpers, etc., in the Dome mine have been suffocated. The mines burned included the Dome, North Dome, Preston-East Dome, Vipond, Foley, O'Brien, Philadelphia, United Porcupine, Eldorado, Porcupine, Standard Imperial, West Dome and Success.

Among the dead are Robert Weiss manager of the West Dome and his wife and child. The Philadelphia mine loss is about $50,000, the United Porcupine mine $20,000, all buildings destroyed; Standard about $40,000; Imperial about $35,000; Success, probably destroyed; West mines about $75,000.

All reports give but a vague idea of the loss of life as well as property in Porcupine camp, which probably will total millions of dollars and hundreds of lives.

A four short hours commencing at 12:30 yesterday, the fire swept from the standard mines through the shore of Porcupine Lake, Golden City, as well as many small villages along the lake front.

While much loss of life occurred in the vicinity of Porcupine lake, the greatest havoc was wrought around the main mines, notably West Dome and Big Dome. There the entrapped miners, cut off from escape, were forced to take to the shafts for safety and perished in by the flames, perished. This was especially the case at Dome and West Dome mines. At Preston-East Dome, an untimbered shaft gave shelter and none perished.

The streets of South Porcupine are strewn with dead persons, horses dogs and cattle. Along the mine roads are the charred bodies of those overcome trying to escape.

Of the staff of three hundred at the Dome but a few were saved and at the West Dome but three out of 84 employees are known to be alive. Along the highway between Dome and South Porcupine over a company actively open section were found charred bodies.

Cochrane, South Porcupine and Pittsview have been wiped off the map, and hundreds of refugees are facing starvation.

Panic and chaos prevailed when the flight by water from South Porcupine began. Men fought with each other for places in the boats for their families. Police Officer Murray, with Jack Gardner, had to stand off the panic-stricken foreigners who rushed for each boat as it came in. Men were shoved into the water and many plunged in as the only place of safety. Thirty launches and as many canoes soon had the women landed safely on the other side of the lake. There was one exception, Mrs. William Gohr, with her baby in her arms refused to leave until she had news of her husband. For over two hours Mrs. Gohr stood

In the lake calling for her husband. Even after all had deserted the town and the fire had burned out, she remained nearly awaiting recovery of her husband's body.

Little will ever be known of the experiences at some of the properties as only the dead remain.

At the Philadelphia, when it became known that the mine must go, Manager Ashmore, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Shovel and others retreated toward town. With the party was C. E. Adams of Philadelphia. He died in Ashmore's arms of heart failure.

What occurred at the West Dome the center of the catastrophe, will probably never be known.

THOUSANDS ARE HOMELESS IN NORTHERN MICHIGAN.
Garling, Mich., July 13.—Several hundred more people are homeless today as a result of the destruction of the village of Wauke, 18 miles southeast of here last night. This brings the total homeless up to 3,000. The entire northeastern section of Michigan is today a desolate blackened waste where yesterday prosperous villages and farms thrived. Fire Marshall Oates reports that the situation is somewhat improved today. Forest fires are reported in 21 counties and while some of them are not serious at present they need but wind in the right direction to fan them into the worst conflagrations country has ever known.

MILITIA READY FOR SERVICE.
Detroit, Mich., July 13.—The property loss in Michigan is estimated at about $10,000,000 and is steadily increasing. National guard companies at Grand Rapids, Saginaw and Bay City are held in readiness for service in the fire swept district.

INVESTIGATING CAUSE OF WRECK AT BRIDGEPORT

Bridgeport, Conn., July 13.—With fourteen ending the death toll and the forty injured in local hospitals recovering only the exact cause of the Federal Express wreck Tuesday remains to be determined today. The generally accepted theory that the engineer of the train hit the cross-over on the viaduct at too great a speed was challenged today by the charge that a partially opened switch derailed the train after it has passed the cross-over safely.

Many trainmen are advancing this theory and some also hold that the engineer was overcome by heat before reaching the bridge.

INTERURBAN KILLS HUNGARIAN LABORER

Mansfield, July 13.—Mike Maystotich, 25, a Hungarian laborer, was killed while awaiting a car near Justice. He sat down on the edge of the platform and a car of the Northern Ohio Traction and Light company struck and threw him several feet, breaking his neck.

OLEO MAKERS ARE INDICTED

Officers of the company owned by William J. Moxley of Illinois are among those indicted.

U. S. CRUISER NORTH CAROLINA WHICH MAY SPOIL CASTRO'S PLANS.

Willemstad, Curacao, July 13.—The American armored cruiser North Carolina, which carried the American representatives to Venezuela's centennial celebration, has left La Guayra and is now anchored, a wireless message reports, off Aruba island, in the Dutch antilles near the coast of Venezuela. General Jose Antonio Davila landed secretly at Buen Ayre island, thirty miles east of Curacao, Saturday night, having come from Venezuela. Davila is one of the sixty-three men who, led

Margin So Large That

THE WOOL AMENDMENT

Reciprocity Measure Will Probably be Disposed of Some Time Today.

Washington, D. C., July 13.—Senator Bailey's free list amendment to the Canadian reciprocity bill was defeated in the senate late yesterday afternoon by a large majority. So evident was the margin against it that Senator Bailey did not ask for a roll call.

Pursuing the policy of forcing the opponents of reciprocity to proceed without delay, Senator Penrose urged Senator Bailey to introduce his tariff amendment at once. The latter did so, and the senate adjourned with the amendment pending. It is a modification of the wool tariff bill recently passed by the house and it places all duties on raw and manufactured wool at a general average of 20 per cent.

The consideration of the reciprocity bill is expected to move with rapidity from now on. The wool amendment probably will be disposed of today and Senators La Follette and Bristow are ready with their amendments and their speeches against the bill.

"Semi-Democrats" "borrowed Democrats" and like terms were applied to the Republican senators supporting the bill by Senator Heyburn in a speech against the measure. He declared that when the vote on the bill is taken all real Republicans in the senate will be opposed to it, while the "semi-Democrats" will vote for it, along with the "fee-simple Democrats."

"How can we educate the leader of the party back to Republican principles?" asked Senator Nelson, of Minnesota.

"Who is the leader of the Republican party?" inquired Mr. Heyburn.

Senator Bailey suggested that the Republicans were in a state of mutiny, and did not know their leader.

Senator Heyburn declared that he opposed amendments to the reciprocity bill as well as the bill itself, "because every amendment is a splinter off the Republican flagstaff of protective policy."

"That can't be," interjected Senator Clapp. "The flagstaff has been broken and the flag pulled down."

"I'll bet you 7,000,000 Republican votes that is not true," said Mr. Heyburn. He added that he believed the Republicans would ultimately come together again on protective principles. Asked by Senator Bailey as to how he would classify the indicted, he replied that he was a Republican. "I am a Republican," he said, "and I am a Republican because I believe in the principles of the Republican party."

FIRST PHOTO OF FRIGHTFUL TRAIN WRECK AT BRIDGEPORT, CONN.; 21 KILLED, 70 HURT.

Bridgeport, Conn., July 13.—Twenty-one persons were killed and seventy injured when the Federal express, a fast train over the New Haven railroad, bound from Washington for Boston, left the viaduct passing through this city and plunged to the street below. Engine and cars were smashed in appalling fashion, and wreckage was scattered 200 or more feet away from the track side. The wreck was due to the engineer taking a cross-over at a speed estimated at 60 miles an hour when the time card called for a speed not exceeding 15 miles an hour, according to officials of the road. A great mass of debris was piled up on the streets beside the viaduct in an instant. Five started in this, but the Bridgeport department quickly put surgents. Mr. Heyburn said they were "mavericks" waiting to be branded.

"If they can be rounded up in the White House lot I know how they will be branded," said Senator Bailey.

Senator Heyburn characterized some of the progressives as "progressing like a crab; you can't tell which way they're going."

"This is not the death bed of the Republican party," he said, referring to the split in the Republican ranks, "but it will be the deathbed of many of the men who are supporting the reciprocity bill when the people realize that it means the pulling down of the protective system."

Senator La Follette's long promised amendment to the reciprocity bill, proposing duty reduction on wool and cotton, which he calculated would save the consumer $169,000,000 annually on cotton and $172,000,000 on woolsens will be introduced tomorrow.

In a statement tonight La Follette said that against this enormous saving to the consumers which assumes that the price to the consumer will be reduced to the same extent as the reduction of duty, the loss of revenue to the government under the two schedules will approximate $30,000.

"The change for the woolen schedule, as a whole," said Mr. La Follette, "would represent a reduction from an average ad valorem of 61.74 per cent under the present law to 32.24 per cent, or a reduction of 23.1-2 ad valorem, and over 38 per cent below the present rate."

"The average ad valorem rate on cotton goods, including artificial silk is to be reduced under the proposed amendments from 55.59 per cent, under the present act, to 29.45 per cent, representing a reduction of over 46 per cent ad valorem, and over 47 per cent below the present rate."

Mr. La Follette declared that the duties are still greater than necessary to protect American manufacturers from European competition.

JUDGE TAFT FOR PRESIDENT OF THE BAR ASSOCIATION

Cedar Point, July 13. Discussion of the proposition to do away with certain principles and legal delays in the trial of court cases occupied the morning session of the Ohio State Bar Association convention today. The discussion was broad enough to allow all delegates to air their opinions. The general trend of the argument was against any radical change in court procedure. There seemed to be little doubt today that Judge Fred L. Taft, of Cleveland, said to be a distant relative of the President, will be made president of the association.

ICE RIOTS BECOMING FREQUENT

Prices Have Risen 200 to 300 Per Cent in

DEATH ROLL INCREASES

And Parents of Dying Children
Lead Attack on East Side
Ice Plants.

New York, July 13.—Scarcity of ice, which menaces the city, has moved Mayor Gaynor, Police Commissioner Welch and District Attorney Whitman to take official cognizance, and an investigation of the causes of the present shortage is now under way.

Ice riots broke out on the East Side yesterday among the poor. Prices have risen from 200 to 300 per cent in the course of the hot spell, and the increased demand has been so heavy that the Knickerbocker ice company refuses to sell to any but its own retailers. The independent dealers sell, but only at advanced rates.

One hundred men and women stormed the office of the Foster-Scott company yesterday afternoon yelling "Ice! Give us ice!" Many had sick children, dying for lack of ice.

"Smash the windows," yelled the crowd.

Buckets of water from the windows greeted the leaders, but the crowd grew angrier and the manager decided to quiet it by distributing tickets which could be exchanged for ice at the company's pier.

The District Attorney said that a delegation of dealers, who cannot get ice from the Knickerbocker, had asked to wait on him.

The death roll yesterday of a score and a half and nearly a hundred prostrations almost equaled the casualties of Tuesday, although the temperature averaged 10 degrees less. The high humidity, which was 65 per cent during the heat of the day, increased the strain, while the stifling heat of the night before, the worst of the present hot wave, sapped many a weakened constitution and sent the count of the dead to high figures.

The maximum temperature for the day recorded at top of the White Hall building, was only 86 degrees, which was attained at 50 minutes after 11 o'clock, while the reading of the thermometers on the street at 11 o'clock was 95 degrees.

EVA BOOTH PROSTRATED.
New York, July 13.—Eva Booth, Commander of the Salvation Army, is ill from prostration by the hot weather. It was announced yesterday she had fallen a victim to the oppressive heat of the last 12 days; that she has had several fainting spells, and found it impossible to keep an appointment to address the Christian Endeavor convention in Atlantic City.

COLD STORAGE ICE.
Logansport, Ind., July 13.—Fifty tons of ice, frozen two years ago, were found cached in a warehouse here by scouts seeking to avert an Indianapolis ice famine. The owner, Chris Jeannerette, who cut the ice in Bel river in the winter of 1908-9, but was forced out of local competition by an artificial ice company, promptly sold his "cold storage" ice.

MANSFIELD GIRL ELOPES TO CHICAGO WITH AN ACTOR

Mansfield, O., July 13.—Miss May Cook, 19 year old stenographer, employed in the offices of the Mansfield Rubber company, eluded the members of her family and eloped to Chicago with Edgar Murray, Jr., an actor who has been playing in Mansfield for the past several weeks. Miss Cook had packed her clothing and was at the station when her father found her and forced her to return home. However, the next day, instead of going to work she met her sweetheart and they went to Chicago where they were married.

BURGLAR HID UNDER THE BED

Akron, July 13.—Emil Scheppler and John Shaffer, a roomer at the former's home, captured a man who had gained entrance to the house. The two men barricaded the front and back doors and then called the police. When they arrived they found the burglar hiding under the bed in a down-stairs room. He had pried open the back door to gain entrance. He gave the name of Daniel Roach to the police and is charged with suspicion until the case can be investigated.

widely reported, he succeeded by Lord Kitchener. Sir Eldon Gorst has occupied the high position, in which he dominates all Egypt, since 1907.

Ex-Congressman Shattuck Dead.
Cincinnati, O., July 13.—Ex-Congressman William Shattuck died suddenly early this morning at his home in this city. Death was caused by heart trouble. Shattuck represented the first Ohio district in congress for six years but retired from active life eight years ago.

GRAY AND KIHM DROVE IN RUNS WITH PRETTY HITS FOR EXTRA BASES

Newark Takes Second Game of Series With Dayton, Big Ed Asher Working Against Locals—The Contest Abounded With Hair Raising Situations and 800 Fans Were Delighted.

Dummy Kihm and Dolly Gray were the real heroes of yesterday's session with the Dayton Vets in which Newark and particularly the two mentioned, capped a close and extremely exciting decision 6 to 3. It was Kihm's triple in the sixth inning which again placed Newark one run in the lead after Dayton had scored four runs in the awful sixth frame. It was Gray's screamer to the left field fence in the eighth, good for two bases, which sent Manager Pendry bounding home with the run which proved to be the winner.

If any of the 800 fans who saw this contest, did not get his money's worth, there is something radically wrong with his makeup. There were thrills enough in this game for the most adventurous. The only trouble was that some of those who suffer from weak hearts or shattered nerves could hardly stand the strain and though no fatalities have been reported many persons suffered from the excitement.

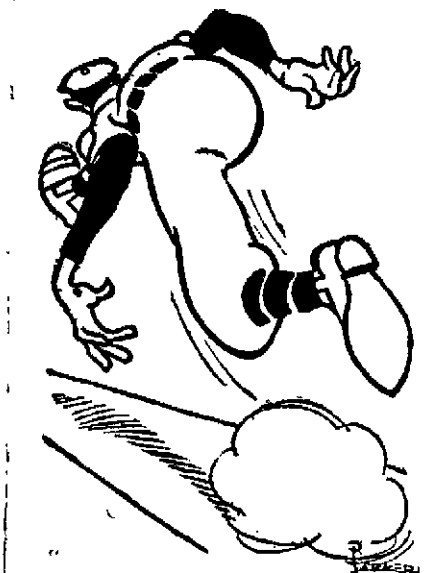

Ed Asher, a former Newark star, was on the mound for the Dayton aggregation and Herman Werder offered his repertoire of slants on behalf of the New Newark club. Both pitchers worked nicely and both pitched themselves out of dangerous holes several times, though timely hits by both clubs proved nerve racking to the pitchers.

Werder is a new man in professional baseball. His experience has been limited to a brief connection with the Philadelphia team while that bunch was in the south on the training trip. He was sent to Fort Wayne from the Phillies and later went to Grand Rapids and came to Newark with the rest of the team. Before his connection with the Phillies he had had college baseball experience and was recommended to the big league management by a friend.

Werder has the stuff but the fate of the two pitchers who started the Tuesday session probably had something to do with his nervousness, which was apparent. He was over-anxious to win from the Vets to enjoy the revenge for a former defeat at the hands of the "five thousand dollar beauties." However, Werder got away with the game and is entitled to credit for tightening up in the ninth inning and retiring the men in order. Sample, the second man up was retired on strikes and Asher lifted one to right field, Dolly Gray taking the chance.

Until the sixth inning Dayton was retired in good order, but three men getting on the paths in five frames. DeHaven singled in the second and was thrown out at Murry's corner in attempting to steal. Benson duplicated the stunt in the fourth and suffered a like fate. Knoll walked in the fifth and got as far as second on Werder's balk but went no further.

Newark on the other hand, started off in the first inning. With the first two men retired, Pendry worked Asher for a walk. He took a healthy lead from first and when Asher threw to Cameron at first, Jack dashed for second. Cameron to get to third but he slid past the bag and was caught by Kirkpatrick. Things were quiet then until Dayton opened the sixth inning. Sample was out on a fly ball to Regan and Asher singled to deep short, the throw being too difficult for Steve to make successfully. Kirkpatrick singled to center and Benson lifted a high one to Wickland. Spencer singled to left scoring Asher. Kirkpatrick and Spencer worked the double steal, and Knoll walked, crowding the cushions. DeHaven came up with a timely triple to the right field fence and three runs counted. Cameron fanned and left DeHaven stranded at third.

With Dayton leading by one run, Newark assumed the offensive in the sixth with a determination to get back at Asher and his fellow Vets. Pendry and Wickland were powerless to start things but Gray came up with his second hit. Craven took a swift bender in his ribs and trotted to first. With these two fast men on the paths, Dummy Kihm, the old reliable, drove one over Knoll's head in center and score two men, getting safely to third himself. Quesser's honest effort to score Kihm resulted in a long fly to left field, a difficult chance for DeHaven.

In the seventh DeBord walked and was sacrificed by Sample. He stole third and Asher attempted to bunt, and squeeze DeBord across the pan. Pendry fielded the ball with lightning like movements and caught the short stop at the plate. Quesser received the ball and blocked the plate with a crash. Fortunately neither was hurt. Kirkpatrick's effort was taken by Kihm at first.

In the eighth, Benson opened with a neat safety to right field. Spencer was out on a fly ball to the same garden and Knoll's drive down the first base line was gathered in by Kihm on a splendid play. DeHaven doubled to left field and scored Benson and Cameron fanned.

Newark's half of the eighth, with the score again tied Pendry opened with a drive to right field, too hot for Spencer to handle. Wickland laid down a neat sacrifice. Gray with his trusty hingle stick, drove a beautiful hit to deep left, Pendry

NO DEALS ARE PULLED AS YET

It is generally understood that some of the surplus material of the Zanesville club will be disposed of this week, but none of the negotiations had been consummated last night, says the Times Recorder. Manager Italy knows that he has some splendid material that other clubs would like to secure, and which would put them in the running. There will probably be something doing in this line within the next day or two.

PATRIOTIC IS RIGHT!

South Bend, Ind., July 13.—Patriotic baseball fans cheered the members of the South Bend club of the Central League and Owner Bert Annis during the game with the Ft. Wayne team after it had been announced yesterday afternoon that the South Bend franchise would be transferred to Grand Rapids, Mich. Annis said last night that the club would open at Grand Rapids next Friday, opposing Dayton. The Southern Michigan league, it is said, is considering placing a team in South Bend.

KIRKPATRICK SOLD.
Dayton, O., July 13.—Enos Kirkpatrick, third sacker of the Dayton Central League club, will join the Brooklyn club at the end of the season. Terms have been agreed upon and papers will be signed within a few days. Kirkpatrick is a heavy hitter and a fast man on the bases.

FRACTURED HIS THROWING ARM

Alfred Kihm, son of First Baseman Kihm of the Newark baseball team, is carrying his right arm in a cast. Several weeks ago he broke his arm pitching ball and the fracture stiffened the arm. Dr. W. S. Turner this morning rebroke and reset the arm. It will probably require six weeks before he can use it.

FORT WAYNE TOMORROW; LADIES' DAY

Ft. Wayne comes to Newark tomorrow, Friday, for three games, the series closing with the Sunday game. This is the last series on the home grounds until the first of August, and that means that local baseball lovers will be without baseball for two weeks.

Ft. Wayne has a good team and the announcement of their coming should assure a good attendance at the three games. Among the players on this team is Curly Blount, the old Youngstown star. He was a member of the team during Newark's great baseball season.

Tomorrow will be ladies' day, too. This assures a good attendance of the fair fans. Everything on the ground is free to the ladies on this occasion except the pop and lemonade.

SOUTH BEND LOSES TEAM

South Bend, Ind., July 13.—It was definitely announced here yesterday that the South Bend team of the Central league had been transferred to Grand Rapids by Owner Bert Annis, the change to take effect Friday, July 14, when Dayton goes to Grand Rapids to play the erstwhile Benders at that place. Annis says he has done this to keep the Michigan town in Central League territory. The new Grand Rapids team will take South Bend's place on the schedule starting Friday.

SCHAFER GOES MARTIN REPORTS

Pitcher George Schaffer was released yesterday afternoon by Manager Pendry, this being one of the first releases which will be made to cut down the local team's salary list. More players than necessary have been carried by the Newark club since its arrival here and as soon as some of the injured men improve, other releases will follow.

Last night Harry Martin, who was with the team at Grand Rapids, was ordered to report to be on hand in case Quesser suffers injury. Martin was injured early in the season, while the team was at home and he has only recently recovered sufficiently to get into the game.

SOUR GRAPES.

Owner Klene will never regret leaving Newark. Other Ohio State cities will have no cause to complain that Piqua was admitted to the circuit. Fans in Newark, however, when they are without baseball altogether, may kick themselves a few times when they realize that they allowed Newham's classy team to get away from that city.—Marion Star.

Newark fans are glad to exchange Klene's Ohio State League club for the present aggregation playing in Newark. That the fans are more than satisfied is indicated by the excellent attendance. When Newark takes the road next week, every player will receive his full salary to date and this means the expenditure of a lump sum sufficient to buy the entire Piqua team.

HOLOPHANE LEAGUE.

Members of the various departments of the Holophane company, such as the engineering department, sales department, manufacturing department, mold shop and the metal shop have united in the idea of organizing a league for the purpose of encouraging base ball, basket ball, bowling, and other sports, together with the idea of promoting good fellowship among all the employees of the company.

They are at present trying to obtain a suitable location for their headquarters where the club meetings will be held and where the members will be able to entertain themselves.

At the last meeting of the organization held at the Armory on June 22d, the election of officers took place as follows: President, Mr. Fred Squigins; vice president, Mr. James Bell; secretary and treasurer, Mr. H. G. Hafner; chairman of athletic committee, Mr. W. Wandless.

The committee on by-laws consisting of Messrs. Brice, Bell, Cochran and Wandless reported that they had drawn up a set of by-laws which they presented for a first reading.

It was decided to rent out the Holophane field, together with the use of the base bags for $1.00 to outside teams. Schedules for the rental of the field can be made with the chairman of the athletic committee, Mr. Wandless, care metal reflector department, Holophane company.

The next meeting of the organization will be held this evening in the office of the Holophane company, 806 Trust building.

"LOVE'S YOUNG DREAM."

Married life is a veiled secret to those who first enter into this sacred condition. Courtship is a dream of bliss, but when the realities of marriage come and an increasing household is recorded by the years, economies of time, labor and money become necessary.

The cheerful, smiling bride should not become a drudge—and she need not. Cleaning up of laundry work, dishes, woodwork, kitchen utensils and all the other necessary forms of washing can be made easy with Hewitt's Easy Task soap, which costs no more than the cheap kind—five cents for a liberal cake—pure white.

WHY WE WON.

No baseball fan will acknowledge that he is superstitious, but Manager Welfenbach of the Hotel Warden declares that he can explain why Newark was able to win. He went to his room after lunch to change his shoes to go to the game. He found that when he dressed in the morning, he had pulled on his stockings wrong side out. When he offered to change them, Mrs. Welfenbach objected strenuously, saying that it would result in defeat for Newark. He took his good wife's advice and went to the game with his socks on wrong side out. Do you wonder that Newark won?

SHORT SPORT

Is there any use calling the name of the player who, in the Philadelphia-Detroit contest, got a base on balls, stole second, stole third and then stole home? Who scored three runs without the formality of getting a base hit? Who stole four bases?

All in all even the greatest star of the old timers was dimmed by the luster of Ty Cobb's greatness.

Rollie Zeider, whom the fans jeered as a shortstop is playing a wonderful game at first for the White Sox, handling 23 put outs without a bobbie. He is hitting .280.

Doolin's forgetfulness and Magee's slugging tendencies may cost the Phillies dearly in the race for the rug.

With the Cubs in a narrow lead, Philadelphia and New York tied for second place and Pittsburg and St. Louis tied for third place only 35 points separate the first from the fifth.

The over-confident Cubs dropped a nice one to young Mr. Knitzer.

If Rube Marquard's winning streak holds out, "Thewson" the name of the Giants' favorite pitcher will be changed to "Rquard."

Charley Murphy has tilted the ante, made it cost $20,000 to play in that game for those eminent Lithuanians, O'Toole and Kelley of St. Paul. Which, it may be argued is making the roof the limit.

With Germans, Cubans and now Indians making up his ball team, Garry Herrmann is said to be in need of the interpreter who was so overworked on the late Mr. Babel's unsuccessful tower.

Milk For Skin Discolorations.

A combination recommended as an almost sure cure for discolorations of the skin consists of a tablespoonful of sweet milk with a teaspoonful of salt dissolved in it. This should be applied every night until the desired effect is secured. The milk is allowed to dry on the skin and remain until morning, when tepid water is used to remove it and the skin anointed with a pure cold cream or soothing lotion. A beauty specialist recommends for nightly bathing milk just beginning to turn sour—that is, if the skin is inclined to be dry. Another suggests the foot bath in hot milk for tender, sensitive, nervous feet.

The commissioners of Athens and Mahoning counties would never win any medals in a contest to pick the most intelligent board of public officers, neither would they get the booby prize in a race to pick the champion blockheads. The Athens county commissioners, Republicans, have reduced the salaries of Democratic members of the Athens board of review, and thus forced them to resign. The Mahoning county commissioners, also Republicans, it is reported, intend to do the same. These boards of review are needed to get property valuations and Attorney General Hogan will appeal to the courts to eliminate partisan politics from the tax machinery.

It is not yet satisfactorily shown why Frederick Hale, son of the former Senator from Maine, received a fee of $5,000 out of the Secret Service fund for alleged diplomatic labors in helping to fix a Canadian boundary line. The best reason is that the parent was in the exercise of almost unlimited power in the Senate of the United States. Besides his luxuriously appointed apartments as chairman of the Appropriations Committee he had his private apartment as a member of the Monetary Commission. But this apartment has been taken away from him, and he, with the other members of the commission, is about to lose the salary of $7,500 attached to the sinecure.

Senator John Sharp Williams of Mississippi, has acquitted himself most handsomely as a Democratic leader in the controversy over reciprocity with Canada that is drawing to its close. This is a most auspicious beginning of his Senatorial career.

TO MAKE ONE PER CENT TAX LAW EFFECTIVE

The Ohio State Journal, Republican, in a recent editorial gave some advice which, if followed by an army of tax spenders opposing a low tax rate, would make the Smith 1 per cent tax law workable in every Ohio taxing district. The editorial reads: "Portsmouth doesn't seem to be 'squealing' at the 1 per cent tax limit. It has gone to work in an honest fashion to supply the conditions to make the law effective. It has proved the good sense and good business of maintaining a low rate by an honest return."

"What was done? The manufacturers got together and agreed upon a rule for returning their property on the basis of its real value. The rule made the provision for more opinion, but depended upon actual figures of cost and expense for getting at the rating. They went on the idea that if we are honest the law is right. And that idea won, and it will win everywhere if manfully applied."

"Here is the result: The personal property duplicate has been increased from $10,000,000 to $27,000,000 and this increase, with the additional real estate valuation, will give Portsmouth more money than it ever had before—enough and to spare for expenses, improvements and interest."

"Had Portsmouth done like some other cities, and howled about the inadequacy of the 1 per cent and their officials gone forth meaning because improvements would stop, the school terms cut down, necessary expenses lopped off and the future glory of the city painfully menaced, it, too, would be floundering in the sticky swamps. Instead of that, it comes forth with a proud step and an eagle eye, and takes its place in the van of the progressive cities of Ohio."

The condition in Columbus, another example that shows that all that is needed to make the Smith law a success, is resolute and aggressive officers who will do their duty.

IS "PROTECTION" A REAL BENEFIT?

"Protection," says Congressman William C. Redfield, a Democrat, causes a manufacturer almost inevitably to depend on the government for help, instead of carefully and minutely studying the details of his own business. The manufacturer should be his own severest critic and should never be satisfied with his results. In every modern shop "six months ago" should be ancient history. Protection, however, has enabled the American manufacturers to prosper by selling to their fellow countrymen at prices so high that they have not thought it necessary to study their own business closely because they depend upon government backing.

"I believe that protection is an injury to American manufacturers by limiting their scope and by narrowing their horizons. One reason why the manufacturers of this country are abandoning the protectionist faith is that their plants have been stimulated to become so large that only in rare years has the demand in this country become enough to take their total product, and they have to sell it abroad."

"And so long as they must pay the high price for raw materials, they find it is sometimes difficult to sell abroad, although such is the efficiency and such the cheapness of their labor in this country, as compared with that of Europe, that that single fact does of times enable them to get their goods sold in foreign markets."

The Senate will not agree on dates for taking the votes. Well, if the Senators like the climate of Washington in July that is their affair. Not only has the country made up its mind that the Reciprocity bill is to pass, but the Senators themselves know it is to pass, and the opponents have made all the records they need with their constituents, so that this protection of the session, and this reluctance to bring to a close what is called a debate, but what is merely a series of opposition speeches made for home consumption, is not easy to explain.

DEMOCRATS TO STICK TO TEXT

They Must Maintain Bars Against General Bills.

CANNOT MAKE EXCEPTIONS.

Should Pure Food Law Be Amended as President Taft Desires Way Would Be Opened For Dollar a Day Pension Measure and Debate That Would Mean All Summer Session.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.
Washington, July 13.—[Special.]—The house Democrats cannot let down the bars for the passage of any general legislation which is pressing because of the insistence that other measures must be considered which the leaders desire to postpone.

Following the recommendations of President Taft, there is a general desire to amend the pure food law so as to meet the recent supreme court decision, but friends of other measures will take advantage of any deviation from the regular program to press forward bills they want considered. The dollar a day pension bill is one which gives great concern and is opposed by southern Democrats. If it should be given a preference the southern men would insist that war claims bills should be considered, and then there is also a strong labor element elected last fall which is pressing for labor legislation.

"If we ever let down the bars," said one of the leaders, "we will be here until December."

Signs of Break.
Those who have charge of legislation see signs of a break in the senate. It has become well understood that nothing in the way of tariff legislation except the reciprocity bill is to pass. As soon as a vote can be had on that measure it will be very difficult to keep a quorum here. At least it is evident that a quorum will not stay and listen to a moot discussion of the tariff. Congress will be forced to adjourn because the members will not stay here playing at legislation.

All Is Not Lost.
Last winter Congressman Hobson vociferated in congress and later on the lecture platform about the danger of this country from a foreign foe. General Leonard Wood and military experts not connected with the army pointed out that the army was well high useless and much was needed to make it effective.

Since then we have had the largest battleship at a coronation, and General Wood has announced that the forts protecting New York are impassable to a foreign fleet. So we can get through the heated spell without adding the fear of immediate national destruction to our list of worries. Incidentally other forts are as strong as those which protect New York.

From Way Back Yonder.
Former Senator James B. Henderson, whose services ended more than forty years ago, has an idea that it would be a good thing if some one would invent a method of storing the heat of summer and using it in winter. He thinks it would be better than talking tariff or any of the other questions which agitate the public mind. "Then we could be rid of this row about conservation which fills the time between sessions of congress," he said.

Taft Has the Power.
While it is interesting to note that Roosevelt and Taft disagree as to arbitration and what may be submitted to arbitration, we must not forget that Taft has the last chance on the subject. Whatever Taft says about it must go into the law. The senate will have an opportunity to pass upon it, but even then Taft is more powerful in the senate than Roosevelt. Roosevelt may have a following among the people, but peace talks are more popular now than anything that might lead to war.

Statistics on "Mud Tax."
And now Senator Swanson has added a lot more facts and figures showing why attention should be given to the construction of roads in this country. The Virginia senator has supplemented the speeches of other senators and shown that the farmers of the country pay a vast tribute every year on account of bad roads. "Mud tax" he has named it, and the name is likely to stick until congress takes hold of the good roads movement. Swanson proposes that the government shall improve the roads used as rural routes. That gets around any constitutional problem. If good roads appropriations ever begin they will soon far exceed the amount spent on rivers and harbors and public buildings, but it is claimed more people will be benefited.

Wiley and Mildy Nicotine.
A brave man is Dr. Harvey W. Wiley. He did not fear to tackle the pure food problem with all the opposition it engendered, and now he has boldly assailed Mildy Nicotine. Wiley is sixty-four years old, and he will live long, it is believed, but it is doubtful if he will live to see a dent made in the tobacco business. Wiley improved foods by resorting to legislation, but he cannot expect to get legislation helping to eliminate the tobacco habit.

BRYAN OVERLOOKS HARMON IN NAMING HIS FAVORITES

Lincoln, Neb., July 13.—Wm. J. Bryan in a Communion editorial this week gives a list of eight Democrats whom he deems available for the presidential nomination in 1912. The list is remarkable in that the name of Governor Harmon of Ohio does not appear. Bryan says that no one questions the availability of Folk, Wilson or Clark, but that aside from these there are many available. Here are some tickets he suggests:

Gov. Smith, of Georgia, and Gov. Burke, of North Dakota; Marshall, of Indiana, and Dix, of New York, or Dix and Marshall; Senator Culbertson, of Texas, and O'Grady, of New York, Shafroth, of Colorado, and Foss, of Massachusetts; James, of Kentucky, and Osborne, of Wyoming; James and Brandies, of Massachusetts; Judge Clark, of North Carolina and Senator Pomeroy, of Ohio. He appends these names as also available:

Gov. Plaiside, of Maine; Senator Kern, of Indiana; Senator Newlands, of Nevada; Senator Chamberlain, of Oregon and Senator Owen, of Oklahoma.

ITCHING SKIN QUICKLY COOLED

Hot weather means skin trouble for many people, but now you can stop the itch instantly.

Just a few drops of the cooling and healing winter green lotion and the iten is gone—not in half an hour—not in ten minutes—but in five seconds.

IRON TRADE REVIEW

Cleveland, July 13.—The Iron Trade Review today says:

Activity in the iron trade has extended to the pig iron market and inquiries for basic are heavier than at any time in more than 18 months, between 60,000 and 75,000 tons being under active negotiation. Heavy tonnage of basic has changed hands recently at very low prices. Some of the larger consumers of foundry grades, including the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing company are negotiating for their forward requirements.

New business and specifications against contracts for finished materials showed further improvement during the first 10 days of July, despite the fact that this is regarded as one of the dullest months of the year for the steel industry. One large company reports that actual bookings last week exceeded shipments by several thousand tons. On account of the increased bookings, the usual mid-summer idleness of finished mills was of short duration, most of the mills which closed down June 30 having resumed operation. The feeling is now pretty general that there will be a gradual increase in buying in all lines and that the industry will make an excellent showing during the third quarter, as compared with the first and second quarters of this year.

Despair and Despondency

No one but a woman can tell the story of the suffering, the despair, and the despondency endured by women who carry a daily burden of ill-health and pain because of disorders and derangements of the delicate and important organs that are distinctly feminine. The tortures so bravely endured completely upset the nerves if long continued.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a positive cure for weakness and disease of the feminine organism.

IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG, SICK WOMEN WELL.

It allays inflammation, heals ulceration and soothes pain. It tones and builds up the nerves. It fits for wifehood and motherhood. Honest medicine dealers sell it, and have nothing to urge upon you as "just as good." It is non-secret, non-alcoholic and has a record of forty years of cures. Ask Your Neighbors. They probably know of some of its many cures.

If you want a book that tells all about woman's diseases, and how to cure them at home, send 21 one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce to pay cost of mailing us, and he will send you a free copy of his great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser—revised, up-to-date edition, in paper covers. In handsome cloth-binding, 31 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

A Welcome Change

Smoke curling up from the farmhouse chimney as the men are coming in from the fields, gives a pretty suggestion of a good supper and a comfortable home. But it also means a hot, tired woman, working hard over a blazing fire.

Your wife can escape this with a New Perfection Oil Cook-stove.

A New Perfection keeps a kitchen many degrees cooler than any other range, yet it does all a coal or wood range can do. It saves time, labor and fuel. No wood to cut; no coal to carry; no ashes; no soot. With the New Perfection even it is the best cooking device you can find anywhere.

Made with 1, 2 and 3 burners, with long, turnspike-like enameled chimneys. Handsomely finished throughout. The 2 and 3 burner stoves can be had with or without a cabinet top, which is fitted with drop shelves, towel racks, etc.

ANOTHER REFORMER.

He sat in comfort in the shade, and exercised his nimble jaws. This world much better might be made if he were asked to frame the laws. It jarred him when he looked around, to see injustice everywhere; and to his ears there came the sound of people wailing in despair. He had a gentle, tender heart that ached for those whose lives were dark, the martyrs of the busy mart, the victims of the money power. For all who suffered, he had sighs; he stood up for the poor man's cause; and if his countrymen were wise, they'd call on him to make the laws. And thus, with dream and idle boast, he talked the hours down, one by one; and tied up to a hitching post, his horse was standing in the sun. His horse was swearing at the flies in language that the ponies use, and rubbing its afflicted eyes, and stamping out its lost shoes. His sounding schemes I don't endorse; that sort of man I most despise who mounds big theories while his horse is scrapping with the doggone flies.

Daddy's Bedtime Story—

Daddy Tells Jack How to Make a Fortune

"Y, but I wish I had a whole lot of money," burst out Jack one evening.

Jack never thinks of anything but money," remarked Evelyn. "Well, dearie," said daddy "what happens every time he makes something out of his little business plans? Don't you always get half?"

"Oh, daddy, I'm so sorry I said that," said Evelyn. "Won't you forgive me, Jackie, dear?"

"Sure, Mike," said Jack, who is just getting into his slangy days and who, though he would give his life for his little sister, couldn't be made to admit it even for the fortune he is always thinking about.

"Well," said daddy "I'll have to think a bit over this for a minute. I have never made a fortune myself but I'm sure Jack will, and I've got to get him started so when I get old and bent like Uncle Jerry Saunders I won't have to raise $100 and a suit of black clothes and go to the old man's home."

Both children jumped out of their cribs and pummeled daddy until he had to take back every word about the old man's home, and then when they were snug in bed again daddy caught an idea.

"Now I know what you can do, Jack," he began. "Just you ship aboard a whaling vessel and go way out to sea and every minute you are awake keep watch for a big piece of dirty yellow stuff looking like a frozen sponge dancing around on the waves."

"When you see it yell with all your might 'Ambergris!' and in a few hours you will feel like King George and Mr. Rockefeller put together."

"But, daddy," cried the children, "we don't know what ambergris is."

"Very few persons do," said daddy "but sailors and perfume makers do. It is a substance that makes a whale sick, just as a grain of sand makes an oyster sick and produces a pearl."

"It makes perfumes hold their sweet smell longer than anything else will, and the last piece found, which weighed 110 pounds, was found by the crew of the whaling ship Viois and was sold in Boston the very day they reached there for $40,000."

"Whew," said Jack: "I guess that's as much as Mr. Rockefeller has."

"Well, not quite," smiled daddy, "but the first day you bring home a nice piece of ambergris I'll give you a written order on Dinah for all you can eat for the next ten years."

"Oh, daddy, what English!" said Evelyn. "Jack couldn't eat ambergris."

"All right for you, Miss Smarty," said daddy. "I'll get even with you."

A CORROBORATION

Of Interest to Newark Readers.

For months Newark citizens have seen in these columns enthusiastic praise of Doan's Kidney Pills, by residents of this locality.

Would these prominent people recommend a remedy that had not proven reliable?

Would they confirm their statements after years had elapsed if personal experience had not shown the remedy to be worthy of endorsement?

No stronger proof of merit can be had than confirmed testimony.

The following statement should carry conviction to the mind of every Newark reader.

G. W. Harter, Hebron, Ohio, says:

I suffered from kidney complaint for years, and received no benefit from physicians' prescriptions. I was finally led to try Doan's Kidney Pills, and they cured me. At that time I publicly endorsed them and I now gladly do so again.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McMillan Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

BENEFIT SOCIAL WAS A SUCCESS

The benefit social given on the lawn at the home of 1149 1/2 Davis on Sixth street last night for the benefit of the quartette fund was a success. The evening was not being exactly what was expected. In fact the circumstances in results were gratifying. The lawn was beautifully lighted with electric lights in Japanese lanterns and the scene was a pretty one. Local baseball players of both sexes assisted in serving the cream and other refreshments and a great sum was realized for the quartette fund. A detailed statement of receipts will be given later.

QUEEN OF THE KITCHEN.
Whoever plays in this most important section of the realm of home is chiefly responsible for the love, happiness and health of his community. Cleanliness is its most important obligation. Clean shining dishes, glass and silverware, serving dainty viands on snowy linen, a cheerful hostess, stimulates a wholesome appetite and causes it to blossom in health.

Nothing is so effective in promoting these results as pure white flour. It is the best food for the system and is the most healthful and purest of all foodstuffs.

RELIEF FOR THE LAUNDRESS.

Under old-fashioned methods laundry work was a severe burden. Rub, rub, rub and scrub, scrub, scrub on a washboard till the back ached, the limbs were weary and the hands became red and rough.

There is no need of going through this ordeal today, because Hewitt's Easy Task Soap lightens this work fully one-half and makes it much less disagreeable. Just buy two cakes for ten cents, and if the first is not satisfactory return the other and get your full money back.

B. &amp; O. RAILROADERS HAD NARROW ESCAPE FROM DROWNING

Zanesville, O., July 13.—Four railroad men narrowly escaped drowning in the Muskingum river near the dam at 1 o'clock this morning when the bottom dropped out of their row-boat. They were forced to jump into the river and swim to shore, and they pulled the boat along after them.

Roy Hutchinson, Oscar Walls, Edward Green and James Myers, all night men at the B. & O., entered the latter's row boat at the foot of Market street for a 20-minute row between trains. They were in the middle of the river when the bottom of the boat gave way and the boat as it filled with water was in danger of sinking.

The men reached shore with difficulty. They took turns about going home in a can to change their clothing. Myers was nearly exhausted by the long swim.

A Healthful Old Age for Women

The turn of life is the most critical period in a woman's existence. Owing to modern methods of living not one woman in a thousand approaches this perfectly natural change without experiencing a train of very distressing symptoms.

Those dreadful hot flashes and the faint feeling that follows, sometimes with chills, extreme nervousness and despondency are symptoms of this condition.

Those hot flashes are just so many calls from nature for help. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was prepared to meet the needs of woman's system at this trying period of her life.

If this period is safely passed through the prospect will be good for a long period of sound health and comparative immunity from disease.

Here is Proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound may be relied upon at this period:

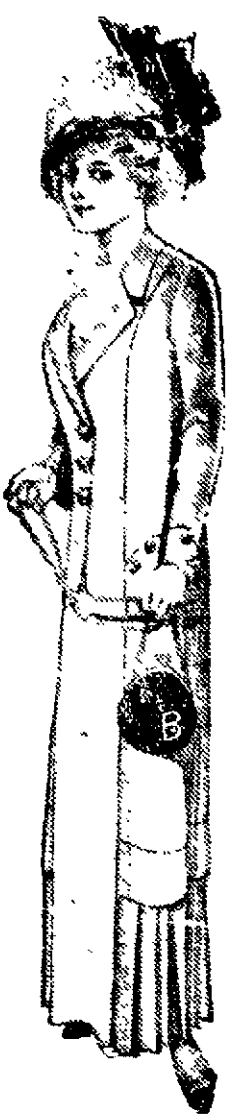

Alton Station, Ky.—"I want other suffering women to know what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. For months I suffered from female troubles in consequence of my age, and thought I could not live. I wrote you and after taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I feel like a new woman. I thank you so much for the good it has done me."—Mrs. Emma Bailey, R. R. No. 1, Alton Station, Ky.

Kewaskum, Wis.—"Your medicine was a blessing to me in my sickness at Change of Life. I cannot describe what I suffered for five long years from headache, backache, dizziness, no sleep, palpitation of heart and irregularities which are common at that period and sometimes continue for weeks at a time.

"I have been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in dry form. I am 54 years old and can do all my work."—Mrs. Carl Dahlke, Kewaskum, Wis.

If you want special advice write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

"RIPPER"

Murders in Atlanta Cause Terror in Negro Quarter, Where the Crimes are Committed.

Atlanta, Ga., July 12.—With the entire negro quarter in a state of abject terror and its inhabitants utterly refusing to venture on the streets at night, as a result of the eight "ripper" murders within as many weeks, the police today adopted a new theory to solve the crime. Heretofore they have been searching for a gigantic black negro, with great powerful hands and arm and a monkey face.

The police now think the "ripper" may be a white degenerate who disguises himself as a negro. In this way, they say, he might accomplish his bloody crimes and by utilizing a nearby hiding place, remove the disguise and hoodwink the police. The murders have been of a singular character to those that characterized the Whitechapel district of London some years ago. With one exception, Saturday night has been the time of the crime. A negroess walking a deserted street heard a low-toned growl. These hands grasp her throat. There is a flash of steel, a gurgle, and she drops to the sidewalk with her head almost severed from her body. The body is then dragged to a nearby hiding place and mutilated.

NEARLY 4,000 OHIO PENSIONERS DIED LAST YEAR

Columbus, July 12.—The number of Civil War veterans who died during the pension bureau's fiscal year, ended July 1, was 3,927 and there are now 22,297 veterans of that war now on the rolls of the Ohio agency, according to the report just completed. The Ohio agency paid out $15,820,211.11 during the year to all classes of pensioners. The number of widows drawing pensions from the Ohio agency for the wars of 1812, Mexican, Indian, Civil and Spanish-American is 20,210.

TWO BOYS RESCUED FROM DROWNING BY 7 YEAR-OLD BOY

Zanesville, July 12.—Ted Hastings, aged 7, proved himself a hero at Caldwell, Noble county, yesterday afternoon. He saw two boys in Duck Creek and rescued Warren Hastings, aged 8, his brother, and Paul McCleary, aged 8, from drowning.

The lad made a third trip into the swift current of the creek to rescue Knowles McCleary, aged 1, son of Wm. McCleary, the third brother, but he had been carried under and drowned. The lad's body was recovered in half an hour.

The four boys were swimming in the creek and three of them ventured out in the current. Their cries for help brought Ted Hastings, who was on the bank dressing.

OFFICIALS RETURN WITH PRISONERS

They brought their prisoners with them, and they are now safely lodged in jail.

HARRY SMITH HAS RECEIVED PARDON FROM WASHINGTON

Harry Smith, one of the Ohio penitentiary's most model prisoners, received a parole, effective immediately, from the department of justice at Washington, late Wednesday afternoon. Smith was serving a seven-year sentence from Lancaster for embezzlement from the Hoeling Valley National bank. He had been in prison since June, 1907, and was the warden's clerk.

With good time he would have completed his sentence in November or December of 1912. A short time ago Congress passed a law allowing paroles to Federal prisoners and when the Board, consisting of the warden and chaplain of the penitentiary and a Federal officer, examined the application of Smith they acted favorably. This was in the late winter or early spring, but the parole was not effective until the attorney general of the United States affixed his signature to the document.

One of Smith's most faithful friends, since his incarceration was Hon. Wade Ellis, late attorney general of Ohio,

STEEL SPLINTER PENETRATED LEFT LEG TWO INCHES

Edgar Couch, a young man aged 16 years, living at 33 South Third street, and employed in the steel department of the Holophane company, in the East End, while engaged in picking steel scraps Thursday morning, had the misfortune to run a steel splinter into his left leg, about midway between the knee and ankle, to the depth of two inches. The steel in penetrating the flesh divided several large blood vessels and produced for a short time a rather alarming hemorrhage. He was taken to his home where the wound was dressed and he is resting comfortably at his time. He will be laid off from work the rest of the week, providing no complications arise.
